

24th Meeting of Economic Counsellors of OIC Member States
Embassies accredited to the Kingdom of Morocco
24 February 2026 Rabat, Kingdom of Morocco

The Islamic Centre for Development of Trade (ICDT) is organizing the 24th Meeting of Economic Counsellors of the Embassies of OIC Member States accredited to the Kingdom of Morocco on Tuesday, 24 February 2026, in Rabat, Kingdom of Morocco.

Held annually, this strategic meeting aims to strengthen coordination with the Economic Counsellors of OIC Member States' Embassies in Rabat regarding the Centre's 2026 activities and programs, while identifying new joint initiatives to boost economic and trade cooperation.

Discussions will focus in particular on:

- ◆ The latest developments in international trade
- ◆ Prospects for intra-OIC trade
- ◆ ICDT's 2026 programs, including:

Trade and investment promotion

- Trade facilitation
- SMEs and institutional capacity building
- Economic monitoring and intelligence
- Joint programs with the Centre's partners

The meeting will be led by ICDT executives, its partners, and representatives of the countries organizing the 2026 ICDT Fairs and Exhibitions, namely Uganda, Türkiye and Iraq.

Participating institutions include:

the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, African Cooperation and Moroccan Expatriates, the Ministry of Industry and Trade, the Islamic Development Bank Group, the Global Alliance for Trade Facilitation, the Islamic World Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the African Development Bank, the United Nations Development Programme, the Arab Bank for Economic Development in Africa, the Food and Agriculture Organization, as well as Moroccan institutions such as the Moroccan Agency for Investment and Export Development, the Moroccan Exporters Association, and the Moroccan Institute for Standardization.

This meeting provides a privileged platform to strengthen institutional coordination, enhance synergies, and promote more integrated economic cooperation within the OIC framework.
